A great disappointment has fallen on the Charleston Mercury, the head organ of the sanionists. Col. Orr is a disunionist, but atterns out that Col. Orr is not in favor of a fire eater's Convention, in South Carolina, in case of Lincoln's election. He thinks that other States had better be consulted first; that the movement ought to be a little more deliberate; that Commissioners should be ent, and the views of the other Southern States ascertained, before any thing desperate and decisive is ventured on. All which seems to the zealous Mercury supremely absurd and silly-"a farce both expensive and silly," to use its own language-if the South means to resist at all. Listen to the swiftlooted Mercury, the messengers of the incensed Southern gods;

Now, if this plan of sending commissioners to Southern States had not been tried and failed, we might fancy that, however dilatory and dependent, some sort of action might follow it. But it has been tried. South Carolina and Mississippi, only last winter, sent commissioners to Virginia, when her soil was just wetted with the blood of her citizens by the raid of Abolitionists .-- She was requested (not to secede from the Union) but simply to call a Convention of the Southern States, to take into consideration their condition. Virginia refused, by a vote of prothirds of her Legislature, to grant even that request. Mr. Orr is for South Carolina tring it again. Is he really so ignorant as to suppose that Virginia will counsel any efbeient action by the South? Is he really so ignorant as to suppose, that the "Southern States" of Kentucky, Missouri, Tennessee, North Carolina will advise the secession of any Southern State? If they, as he proposes, are to be taken into our counsels, does he not know that submission is inevitable?

LOOK AT IT!-The Mobile Register, a Douglas Democratic journal, announces that the following draught of a proposed law is in circulation throughout the South, and that it is designed to submit it for adoption to the next Legislature of Georgia in case of the election of Mr. Lincoln, viz:

1 Be it enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person whatever to receive a commission from and hold an office under the President of the United States, * * *

2. That if any individual whatever shall after the 4th of March next perform any duty by virtue of any order or commission emanating from the United States Government erany branch thereof, such person shall be deemed an outlaw and traitor to the sovereign State of Georgia, and shall suffer death | haffey. is any manner which it may please any good and loval citizen of said State to inflict.

3. That it shall be no crime for any one or more good and loyal citizens of the State of Georgia to consume by fire all the perishable property of said outlaw.

4. That if any judicial officer shall grant a writ of habeas corpus in the cases heretofore recited and set forth, he shall be deemed guilty of outlawry, and shall suffer the penalty of death and contlagration as hereinafter provi-

In commenting on the above programme, at a Democratic meeting in Mobile on the 26th ultimo, the Hon. John Forsyth remarked "that if men were to be hung under these circumstances, without trial by jury, then our Government was a failure in all the ends for which it was instituted and that the Reign of Terror would again be enacted."

LOCAL ITEMS.

THE ELECTION, YESTERBAY .- The Presidential election passed off quietly in this city, yesterday. Amid many causes of excitement, due decorum was preserved, and of its opponent to the free expression of opinion and the undisturbed exercise of the elective franchise was as complete as its own. Seldom has an election in Alexandria passed off leaving behind it so little to regret.

In the First Ward the polls were held at the house of Mr. F. Keyes, on Prince below 4th Water street. At times there was some ex- 5th (County) .... 71 citement, but no breaches of the peace.

The Third Ward polls at the Court House gathered a large crowd. Here most of the Douglas men voted, the Bell and Breckinridge men were more nearly balanced than in the other wards; hence it was warmly contested. At times considerable excitement was shown by the large assemblage, but there was no occasion for the intervention of the officers of the law.

The Fourth Ward poils, at the corner o Prince and Alfred streets presented little of interest, every thing was quiet there all day. The only disturbance which occurred in the city, was at the steamboat wharf, late in the evening, the parties concerned being principally Washingtonians.

VIRGINIA AND TENNESSEE RAILROAD,---We are gratified to state upon official authority, that the damage to the Tennessee Railroad is not so great as has been heretofore stated. We are informed that the repairs can be completed for about $12,000, and it is hoped will not reach that amount. Nor will the interruption to travel be for so long a period as was first anticipated, it being now thought the train will resume their through trips in i few days, at any rate, by the last of the present week. The travelling public may be assured that no energy or exertion will be wanting on the part of the Company, to have the repairs finished at the earliest practicable moment.—Lynchburg Republican.

A special dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer dated Columbia, S. C., Nov. 5th., says: Gov. Gist, in his message to the Logislature of South Carolina, recommends in view, of the probable election of Abraham Lincoln, that it remain in session until the result is known, when such action will be had as will prepare the State for any emergency. The Governor thinks that the only alternative is secession, and declares that no earthly power can prevent it. He recommends the reorganization of the militia force, and that it be put in a position to be used at the hortest notice. He advises that the services of 1000 volunteers be immediately accepted. The message was well received by all classes of the people."

On the 26th ult., John H. McHenry, a prominent citizen of Maryland, died at his residence in the Glades, Alleghany county, at the advanced age of 32 years. The News in Richmond.

carrying California. The Oregon Legislature had resolved to adjourn on the 10th, and hold a special session in the spring, the two houses disagreeing about the bill rendering nugatory the recent Congressional election. It was doubtful if the object will be accomplished.
